WHEN HE'S RICH.

Then He Can Defy Even the Constitution Itself.

Editor Public Ledger: When is it possible for a citizen to occupy a seat in the Senate as a Representative of a state of which he is not a citizen?

Answer.—Soon as he secures such sum as possessed by Senator Calvin B. Brice of New York-Ohio; otherwise, according to the Constitution of the United States.

"No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen."

But nothing herein appears to preclude a Senator's removal to another state after his election.

WON IN A JOO.

Maysville Team Downed the Hopkinsville Boys Yesterday.

The team playing ball in the South with Maysville uniforms on is not the crack team that has been playing here all season, but a team made up of some of the best amateur talent that could be found in this section of the country.

They are not playing ball for the love they have of the game. If they were the scores would be quite different, as they could win every game and not half try.

They want to see the country, and it wouldn't do to win every game. If they did they would have to play the "Waggle" act occasionally in order to get from one place to another.

With Stultz and Zimmer in the points in Monday's game the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of the Christian county lads.

Yesterday was the day appointed for the Maysville uniform-wearers to win, and, with Willie Wellner in the box and Zimmer behind the bat, they had the Hopkinsville team shut out up to the sixth inning, with Hord and Smith in the points for them.

Billie Sutherland poked the ball over the left field fence for a home run in the sixth inning.

It was a ten-inning go, and here is the summary:

Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Hopkinsville. 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Maysville. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3

SHORT STOPS.
Grand Rapids has released catcher Nix.

The Lexington team defeated the Frankforts by a score of 7 to 6.

The Nashville Club has made the record of the season by winning twenty consecutive games.

Pitcher Tannehill of the Richmond Club in the Virginia League is being spoken of as one of the coming pitchers of the country.

McCormick, who is playing shortstop for New Orleans, in a game against Nashville August 28th, out of three times at bat, got a single and a triple.

Twenty-nine extra games were played by the National League Clubs in 1894. Cleveland won five and lost none and Baltimore won four and lost one.

Daniels, formerly with the Georgetown team, is pitching great ball. August 29th the Mobiles only got six hits. August 28th New Orleans four hits and September 3rd Evansville got six hits.

Pitcher Davis of Knoxville, Tenn., who has signed with the Cincinnati Reds, is known south of Mason and Dixon's line as the "Tennessee Rube," and boasts of a record of 33 victories out of 34 games.

George Reiman, the Maysville pitcher who defeated the Senators in one game and won two from the Cincinnati, may be given a trial by the Indianapolis management. Then, if he is all right, he will be shifted to Cincinnati, says The Sporting Life.

Rose Barnes led the National League in batting in 1876, White in 1877, Dalrymple in 1878, Anson in 1879-81-87-88, Gore in 1880, Brothers in 1883-85-86, O'Rourke in 1886, Connor in 1887, Kelly in 1888, Luby in 1890, Hamilton in 1891, Chubb and Brothers in 1892, Stenzel in 1893, and Duffy in 1894.

To find a club's percentage divide the number of games won by the number of games played. Batting average—Divide the number of hits by the number of times at bat. Fielding average—Divide the putouts and assists, added together, by the sum of putouts, assists and errors.

Ren Mulford, speaking of young Hornberger of the Cincinnati Reds, says: "The Reds did not win the pennant of the O. K. League by any fluke, but by clever playing. Young Louis Hornberger shares in the fruits of victory. His pitching was of the stellar order. Hornberger is only 30 years of age, and he isn't any bigger than "Browlie" Forman. He has played at Paris, Ky., but most of his work has been done on amateur diamonds in Cincinnati."

There is now talk at Portsmouth of trading Pratt's Paralytic for a yellow dog, and shooting the dog in order to allow the organization of a team that will be a credit to the town.

Master Tom Sweet, THE LEADER's faithful Sixth Ward Carrier, brought yesterday a sack containing what might easily have been mistaken for "punkies," but which turned out to be monster paw-paws.

LAMENTABLE SUICIDE.

Mr. Benjamin Stevenson Squalors Strachine at Maysville.

Mr. Benjamin Stevenson, aged about 44, was one of the most respected citizens of the Maysville neighborhood.

His brother Oscar died at 3 and was buried from his residence last week, having died of typhoid fever.

At that time Mr. Stevenson himself had the fever, and after his brother's death he took up the idea that he, too, was going to die.

Some days ago he made his will. Yesterday morning he induced his wife to quit the house for a short time, and also sent Mr. Perry Jefferson, who was visiting him, to the orchard for some apples.

While they were absent he got out of bed and swallowed a quantity of strychnine, following it by a drink of water.

When the discovery was made everything possible was done to save him, but he died in about twenty minutes.

Mr. Stevenson leaves a widow, who was a daughter of Mr. James McCarthy, but no children.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Shannon.
